

Whenever you hear the CubMaster say the word “Announcements” all the scouts should start singing this song.

ANNOUCEMENT Song

Lyrics are noted below:

“Announcements, announcements, announcements.

A terrible way to die, a terrible way to die, It’s a terrible way to be talked to death. A terrible way to die.

*Have you ever seen a windbag, A windbag, a windbag, Have you ever seen a windbag.
Well there’s one right there. Blows this way and that way, Blows this way and that way,
Have you ever seen a windbag, Well there’s one right there.”*
